STRANA 1/3 AVGUST 2013

Srpski parlament je doneo Zakon o faktoringu, koji je objavljen u Službenom glasniku Republike Srbije br. 62/2013 od 16. jula 2013. godine, i koji je stupio na snagu 24. jula 2013. godine. Usvajanjem ovog zakona se pokušava stvoriti celoviti pravni okvir za ovu finansijsku delatnost, kako bi se povećala likvidnost privrede, na prvom mestu, likvidnost malih i srednjih preduzeća, ali i rešiti (gotovo) svi problemi koji su se do sad javljali u praksi usled nepostojanja jednog ovakvog zakona.

1 Pojam faktoringa

Zakon o faktoringu definiše faktoring kao finansijsku uslugu kupoprodaje postojećeg nedospelog ili budućeg kratkoročnog novčanog potraživanja, nastalog po osnovu ugovora o prodaji robe ili pružanja usluga u zemlji ili inostranstvu.

2 Predmet faktoringa

Predmet faktoringa može biti svako postojeće nedospelo ili buduće, celo ili delimično, kratkoročno novčano potraživanje koje je nastalo po osnovu ugovora o prodaji robe ili pružanja usluga zaključenog između pravnih lica i preduzetnika.

Predmet faktoringa ne može da bude potraživanje nastalo po osnovu prodaje robe ili pružanja usluga za lične, porodične ili potrebe domaćinstva.

The Serbian parliament has passed a new Act concerning factoring, which is published in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia No. 62/2013 on July 16, 2013 and entered into force on July 24, 2013. The Factoring Act is introduced with the aim to create a complete legal framework for this kind of financial business activity and to increase the liquidity of the market, especially the liquidity of small and medium enterprises. Also, it is the intention to resolve (almost) all problems, which occurred so far in practice due to lack of such a piece of legislation.

1 The definition of the factoring

The Factoring Act defines factoring as a financial service of sale of an existing immature or future short-term monetary receivable from a sale of goods or provision of services in country and abroad.

2 Subject matter of factoring

The subject matter of factoring can be every existing immature or future, entire or partial, short-term monetary receivable from a sale of goods or provision of services between legal entities and entrepreneurs.

Subject to factoring cannot be a receivable from sale of goods or provision of services for personal, family or household purposes.
